

Artists' Circle

The LSO is proud to work with the most talented soloists and conductors each season. Soloists and orchestral players all strive to the same end – to make music

The LSO wishes to create a foundation of philanthropic support which will enable the Orchestra to continue making music of the highest standard with these key artists.

Each soloist develops a unique relationship with the LSO, and with ongoing support the Orchestra will be able to invite artists to return over a number of years resulting in a significant artistic association.

Members of the Artists' Circle form a dedicated group of supporters who are demonstrating their commitment to what the LSO does best – world-class performances. With your help we can continue to make this possible.

In recognition of the generous and much-valued support from the Circle, members will be offered meaningful opportunities to meet with the artists and players, and to develop a closer relationship with the musicians whilst supporting their performances with the LSO.

'[Sir] Colin and I think so much about the music, and we love the music so much, and ultimately we forget about ourselves. It is a wonderful experience making music with Colin and the LSO'

Mitsuko Uchida Pianist
